Christmas Dance Saturday Opens Season On Campus

BUDDY KING'S ORCHESTRA PROVIDES MUSIC FOR AFFAIR

Tomorrow night is the night! The Christmas season will officially open at San Jose State college with the annual Christmas ball in the Scottish Rite temple. Buddy King's 16 piece orchestra will produce sweet, swing, and rhumba rhythms for the dancers. During his recent engagement at the Cocoanut Grove in Santa Cruz, King proved popular because of his versatility in music. Shirley Matthew will be featured vocalist for the evening.

All students and their guests may attend the "Wintermist" dance from 9 to 1, and bids, if not yet purchased, may be bought at the door. The Social Affairs committee is sponsoring the dance, which will be a semi-formal affair. Punch will be served to all attending, in a picturesque ski lodge room.

Decorations have been made all this week by members of the committee, and will be put in the hall tomorrow.

HELP NEEDED

Much help will be needed with the decorations, because of the many branches and little Christmas trees to be used, so anyone wishing to help will be welcome, states Pete Galli, decorations committee chairman. All members of the Social Affairs committee will be required to work.

Other committee chairmen for the evening are Harold Stone, patrons; Gordon Martin, posters; Sue-Dee Smart, bids; Pat Poulson, refreshments.

ZETA CHI WINS RED CROSS DAY

Winning society in Wednesday's Red Cross Day was Zeta Chi who completed more slippers than any other organization. Tied for second place were Beta Gamma Chi and Delta Beta Sigma.

"The day was successful despite the cancellation of the evening party," stated Dot McCullough, co-chairman in charge of production in the sewing room. "Over 15 pairs of slippers were finished, and about 20 more partly completed," she concluded.

New Play Tryouts Scheduled January 3

Tryouts for the first play of the Winter season, "Brief Music," will be held in room 53, January 3 from 4 to 6 p. m. Parts are available for seven women of varied types.

This three-act comedy depicting the trials and tribulations of comedians in a college dormitory will be produced in the Student Union as that building is best adapted to the special "penthouse style" presentation.

All students interested are invited to come and try out. Technical work for the play will be supervised by Wendell Johnson and Al Johnson.

Buddy King, leader of the orchestra which is to "make music" for the Student Body dance, Wintermist, at the Scottish Rite temple Saturday night.

Kappas Contribute Stack Of Toys

Kappa Kappa Sigma sorority members added appreciably to the array of packages under the Christmas tree yesterday by bringing in a large number of beautifully wrapped toys for the children of the Santa Clara County hospital.

The packages under the tree are becoming positively mountainous—almost. Stuffed animals, books, dolls, trucks, sail boats and numerous "surprise" packages are filling the once gaping space.

The toys will be picked up next Friday afternoon and taken to the hospital where they will be distributed to the children Christmas morning. This eleventh year of the traditional Spartan Daily Toy drive promises to be a successful one.

C TEAM IS WINNER IN HOCKEY SPREAD

The C team made up of juniors and seniors excelled in competition at the "hockey spread" in Spartan Stadium Wednesday afternoon.

The 50 girls who attended the spread were divided into three teams. Team A was made up of freshmen; team B represented the sophomores.

In the first game, teams A and B struggled to a scoreless deadlock. Teams C and A managed to tie each other in the second tilt with a score of 1-1. When B and C met for the third contest, the latter led 1-0.

NOON DANCE TODAY IS BENEFIT FOR NEEDY FAMILIES

"Bring a can of food for a needy family and enjoy our dance," urge Zeta Chi's who are sponsoring a noon dance today in the Student Union from 11:30 to 1:30 to collect food contributions for needy families in the San Jose area. Dancing will be to records.

A can of food or 25 cents will gain students admission to the dance. Contributions can be taken to the booth in the Library arch and tickets obtained there, or they can be brought directly to the dance.

Refreshments of sandwiches and cokes will be sold at the affair. The proceeds from the sale of tickets and refreshments will be used to buy foodstuffs other than canned goods which will be packed with the cans for these families.

Chairmen for the affair are Louise Ramos and Betty Sills. Shirley Hart and Benney Mercadier are Food committee members.

CCF YOUTH FOR CHRIST RALLY

San Jose's Youth for Christ director, Lee Mildon, has invited the San Jose State Collegiate Christian Fellowship organization to participate in a rally Saturday at 7:15 p. m. in Montgomery theater of the Civic auditorium.

CCF feels it is quite a privilege to have the opportunity to take part in this rally, since Youth for Christ is world-wide and well known for its excellent programs. The musical portion of the program will be taken over entirely by the CCFers except for the first 15 minutes, which will be devoted to Christmas carols sung by the All Girls' chorus.

Vernon Kendall, San Jose State graduate and alumni member of CCF, will lead the congregational singing. Kendall returned from overseas duty in October, after having served in the army for more than four years.

The CCF chorus will be led by Miriam Primrose, freshman student from San Jose. Also included on the program will be a number of solos and instrumental numbers by CCF members.

JUNIORS AND SENIORS:

A new course, 7d, 101—Professional Requirements, has been added to the requirements of all junior and senior teacher training candidates and will be given only the winter quarter each year. This course is 1/2 unit of credit and will be given every Tuesday at 11 a. m. in the Little Theater. It is of great importance that ALL seniors take this course the coming quarter.

FROSH CLASS 'B' GROUP SPONSORS CLASS PARTY

Roosevelt Junior High Scene Of Activity, Entertainment Tonight

Tonight the freshmen will enjoy an evening of entertainment in a class party, sponsored by group B, at the Roosevelt Junior High school, Eighteenth and Santa Clara streets, from 5 to 11 p. m. Swimming, ping-pong, badminton, and games will be the activities of the evening. Entertainment will also be presented under the direction of Joe Ales; master of the ceremonies for the program will be Ann Corwin.

Ray Jones, chairman, reminds freshmen to bring their own bathing suits and towels if they wish to swim.

Refreshments will consist of cokes, ice cream, cake and potato chips, but there will be no sandwiches. Freshmen who wish to eat sandwiches must bring their own, announces food chairman Ed Brajenovich.

"The bill of fare will be 25 cents per person and will be collected at the high school," states Jones.

Publicity chairman for the evening's activity is Lucille Sovy.

Freshmen who wish to attend this evening's basketball game are invited by Jones to attend the party before the game or afterwards, as they wish, for the affair will be informal and attire is "come as you are."

Soph Class Sponsors Campus Daze Dance

Campus Daze, dance sponsored by the sophomore class, will be held at the San Jose Woman's club January 5 from 9 p. m. until 1 a. m. with Orin Blattner's six-piece orchestra.

The dance will be the first off campus activity of the Winter quarter, with the price of admission $1.10 per couple. Tickets will go on sale Registration day in the Men's gym and will be sold the remainder of the week at a booth in the Library arch.

Attire for the evening will be dressy sport. Featured with Blattner's orchestra will be Bobbie Grabat, vocalist. Grabat appears daily on station KGO from 6-6:15.

Committee heads for the sophomore hop are co-chairmen C. D. Pettus and Lynn Egner; decorations, Terry Stokes; orchestra, Emerson Arends; bids, Bonnie Lingenfelter; publicity, Marje Cornwell.

STAFF NEEDS STUDY TIME

To give Daily staff members time to do a little belated "cramming," the Daily will appear only on Monday and Thursday of next week. First paper of the Winter quarter will be on Registration day, January 2.

Christmas Chimes Will Ring In Quad

Lending atmosphere to the season, Christmas chimes will ring out in the Quad next week during each noon hour. Presented by the Student Chapel committee, the music will begin at 12:40 and continue until 1 o'clock, according to Bob Halsebo, committee chairman.

The Student Chapel committee is a regular committee of the Associated Students, organized for the avowed purpose of conserving and developing the spiritual resources of the campus.

Among the permanent members of the committee are representatives from AWA, SCA, Newman club, Mu Phi, Phi Mu Alpha, Theatron, Art Council, and Pegasus. Individual students interested in the organization are admitted to associate membership.

Spartan Cagers Play Third Home Game With Flyers Tonight

The Spartan hoopsters make their third home appearance of the current basketball season tonight when they tackle the strong Alameda Naval Air station in the State gymnasium at 8 o'clock. A preliminary contest between the respective reserve clubs will start at 6:30.

The Alamedans may prove to be a little too strong for the scrappy Spartans, but the up-and-coming McPherson forces ought to give the Naval flyers a fair battle.

STUDENT LOANS AGAIN AVAILABLE

Student loans from the California Congress of Parents and Teachers, Incorporated, are again made available to San Jose State college students through application in the Dean of Men's office, it was announced today.

This non-interest fund was available and extensively used in pre-war days, but dwindled with the large number of students called to the armed forces. A letter from Dorothy Hearst, second vice president of the Congress, written to Dean Paul Pitman, states that students in need of funds may be eligible upon recommendation by the Dean.

In 1925 the California Congress budgeted a fund of $1500 to be loaned to worthy students who desired to go on to college and had the necessary credits, but whose parents were unable to finance them. Individual loans at that time were not to exceed $150. Since that time the loans have totaled more than $125,000 and aid has been extended to more than 500 students at one time.

Sources of the student loan are three—honorary life memberships, gifts, and student loan repayments. Honorary life memberships come from Parent-Teacher associations, from students in appreciation of the help they received in completing their education, and repayments of loans.

THRUST and PARRY

Dear Thrust and Parry:

We, students at San Jose State college, feel strongly that the criticism heaped upon the cast of "Outward Bound" was unjust, unfair and uncalled for.

Instead, we agree that the cast should be praised for their work considering the fact that this was the first college performance for most of the cast.

Also, the play, "Outward Bound," is a very difficult one to present to an audience, particularly when the theme is not well known to the audience.

We, the undersigned students who have heard the play given over the radio by such well known theaters of the air as "Mercury Theater," and Lux Theater, consider the performance of the cast of "Outward Bound" to be of excellent quality and entertainment.

Dear Thrust and Parry:

With reference to your article about the Gripe dinner (December 11,) if whoever brought up the point that it is a breach of social etiquette for women to smoke in public will consult the same edition of the book of etiquette, he will find that it is also against social etiquette for men to appear in public in shirt sleeves and without a tie. Why doesn't he go to work on that one, too?

Evening Is Just Beginning At 11

By GIN AND SODA

The rules state that all students should be in by 11 on week nights. Students who recently have been "burning the midnight oil," have been finding that the evening is but beginning at this time.

The typical student turns on his study lamp about 7:30, and sits down with the intent of digging into his physics book for at least two or three hours. But roomie has to listen to "that program" on the radio, (full blast, of course) so our hero might just as well lean back and forget Jones, Frothingham and Berwick. They are the guys responsible for the Physics book. A cigarette might soothe his nerves in this situation.

By nine, roomie's radio is a tangled mass of wreckage in the garden beneath the window, but Joe, from down the hall, is exercising his vocal chords in the shower.

After drowning him, Jones, Frothingham and Berwick come back into the picture. Edison and Bell Telephone interrupt him—wrong number.

All in all, by 11, desperation goads him to dig frantically for his cotton. Ears plugged, he sits down, not forgetting to place beside him his trusty .45 (loaded).

So you see, that 11 p.m. bedtime, as we may have intimated, is only the beginning.

Some People Like It--

"The Daily is just a bulletin board. Our paper should have more feature stuff and more life. There's nothing but dance news in the paper; let's have more educational news. How about some national news slanted to the Student's outlook? Let's have more sorority news. Let's do away with this sorority stuff."

These are frequent comments heard about campus.

It is true, there is plenty of room for improvement on the Spartan Daily and much improvement has been made this quarter. There have been exceptionally interesting and informative by-lined stories such as "Job Survey" and many entertaining features, in addition to well written news articles and thoughtful editorials.

Considering the size of the Spartan Daily it does a pretty good job in covering campus events. A great deal of the criticisms made about the Daily are voiced by individuals who haven't read the paper all quarter.

Christmas Carols In Record Library

Carols and hymns which catch the spirit of Christmas lie dormant 11 months of the year, but when December rolls around they are brought out of their hiding and have almost a month of glory.

In the record collection of San Jose State college, housed in the Arts Reading room of the Library, are recordings of many of these Christmas hymns and carols as well as records of narrations of two of Dickens' Christmas stories, "The Christmas Carol" and "Mr. Pickwick's Christmas," narrated by Ronald Coleman and Charles Laughton, respectively.

ALBUM SPECIALTIES

Among the records of carols is an album of the Lynn Murry singers which includes, "Adeste Fideles," "The First Noel," "Silent Night," "Hark, The Herald Angels Sing," and "Joy To The World."

"Christmas Carols Of Many Lands" is the title of an album by the Vienna Boys Choir with Kiktor Bomboy directing. In it are "Noel," "Adeste Fideles," and "Silent Night, Holy Night."

TRINITY CHOIR

Recordings of Christmas hymns and carols sung by the Trinity Choir of mixed voices include "Hark, The Herald Angels Sing," "Oh, Little Town Of Bethlehem," "It Came Upon A Midnight Clear," and "Oh, Come All Ye Faithful."

A record of the voice of the famous contralto, Madame Schumann-Heink, singing "Silent Night, Holy Night" is also part of the collection of recordings of Christmas hymns and carols.

NOTICE

Social Affairs committee: All members be at the Scottish Rite Temple Saturday morning at 9 o'clock to help decorate for Wintermist. Roll will be taken. If you have a car please bring it.

FIRST CONCERT WINS PRAISE

By J. RICE and D. WEBSTER

The first of three symphony concerts in the annual series was presented Tuesday evening in the Morris Dailey auditorium with Mr. Thomas Eagan conducting.

As usual, it was a superior performance.

Janet Ehrke Meyer, soloist, presented a spirited, expertly handled interpretation of the Saint-Saens piano concerto. The plaudits she received were numerous and sincere.

This year the orchestra presents a more balanced effect than last, when Mr. Eagan was short some of his brass section, notably the trumpets. The strings no longer dominate the production, and the percussion department is much improved.

Members of the Music department staff were enthusiastic in their praise, and the applause indicated another successful concert.

IN PASSING

By ROWLAND MITCHELL

Many were the gripes lustily proclaimed Monday night at the annual Gripe dinner; but no one heard my own small voice outside protesting the exorbitant fee required to get in.

It seems to me $1.70 is entirely out of reason for a student body affair of this kind, especially one intended to serve a democratic cause. Apparently I am not alone with this opinion, because 97% of the students DIDN'T go to the dinner. Are we to assume they stayed home Monday night to study for finals?

BUDGET BUSTER

All those I know who attended the dinner said they are accustomed to better meals at half the price. Many a student, including me, can eat for two days on a buck seventy.

Also, if Lucca's must be the locale every year for this event it seems to me only decent that he should spend a few dollars advertising in the college paper, instead of letting the ASB do it all. Who ever heard of the customer doing the advertising?

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

A few "Speak your Piece at Lucca's type of ads in the Daily the week before the dinner would be very appropriate; paid for by Lucca, of course. He gets our business; he should be glad to advertise in our paper. That's only professional courtesy. But if that isn't enough motivation, just consider the extra cash it would net the Lucca money box. For every additional student attending the Gripe dinner Lucca collects another $1.70—let's put it that way.

ALL AROUND ADVANTAGE

Of course, this would contribute to the success of the Gripe dinner, too, since a larger proportion of the student body would be represented. But Lucca shouldn't mind helping us out a little, since we pay for it—but good.

Perhaps the No. 1 gripe is why is the dinner held off campus in the first place? I have heard several reasons why it is, but they sounded more like excuses to me. No doubt it is the course of least resistance to say "We eat at Lucca's—a buck seventy, please," and let Lucca handle the details.

HOW ABOUT HERE?

Last year the Gripe dinner WAS held on campus for once. But the squeak then, we are told, was a shortage of red points. So this year back to Lucca's we go. Red points this time? Uuh, uh. Just too much trouble to prepare the food and serve it.

SKYMASTERS VICTORIOUS

By JERRY EVANS

Moffett Field Skymasters came up from behind in the second half of the basketball game Wednesday night to defeat the Spartans 49 to 36. The local eagles held a half-time lead 20-16, but in the last quarter of the game the Sky-masters broke through the Spartan defense and overcame the hard-fighting Gold and White quintet.

In the first half San Jose State definitely had the edge over the Moffett Field cagers. Both teams played a man to man defense throughout the game, but the Spartans had better control of the ball during the first half.

ROBINSON HIGH

Shooting ability was poor on both teams in the first part of the game, with the exception of Bert Robinson on the Spartan squad. Bert didn't take long, wild shots but concentrated on working the ball in close. He took high point honors in the game with 16 points and was an outstanding player the entire game.

Spartan defense broke in the second half and the Moffett quintet improved their passing and the accuracy of their shots. Coach Walt McPherson's charges were, for the most part, several inches shorter than their opponents and that showed up especially in making recoveries from the back-board.

Wes Stevenson and George Keene played good ball for the Spartans. Stevenson tanked seven digits and Keene rang up five.

RESERVES CLOSE

In the opening game the Spartan reserves, paced by Pete Denevi and Jack Marcipan, dropped a close 52-55 game to the Moffett reserves. San Jose State reserves looked good in the game and up to the closing minutes had it sewed up. Denevi scored 13 points and Marcipan had 10 to his credit.

Starting line-up for San Jose State in the varsity contest was: guards, Ted Holmes and Bert Robinson; center, Wes Steven-the Spartans, lost to California by 16 points, while Alameda defeated the University of California.

Against U.S.F. Fischer and Trancelo led the Navy Flyers with 11 points each; Hammer, a guard, followed closely with 9. "Swede" Buckland, Navy star who led the Alamedans to victory over the Spartans last year, was held to two points.

A new scoring threat was discovered in the Spartan squad Wednesday night during the game with Moffett Field when Bert Robinson, stalwart State guard and demon on defense, turned in a beautiful offensive game as well when he took high point honors, with 16 tallies. Wes Stevenson, State center, followed Bert with 7 points.

The probable starting lineups for tonight's contest will go something like this:

| STATE | Pos. | ALAMEDA |
|-----------|------|----------|
| Maggetti | F | Trancelo |
| Keene | F | Edwards |
| Stevenson | C | Fischer |
| Robinson | G | Hammer |
| Holmes | G | Buckland |

son; and forwards, George Keene, and Ed Maggetti. Bob DePietro and Roy Jones saw quite a bit of action in the game.

The SCA doesn't consider it too much trouble to hold its own dinners. Not once a year, but every quarter, and for more than 85 persons, too. The food they serve doesn't appear in French on a menu, but it's darn good just the same; and 35 cents is all you pay.

The college cafeteria was built for one purpose; namely, to feed us students. What is wrong with using it for the Gripe dinner? A few Home Econ majors should be able to manage the cooking, and the serving could be handled cafeteria style.

I'm all for making our annual Gripe dinner a student body function in practice as well as in theory, rather than what it has been, an off campus recreation.

NOTICES

Football players may pick up their awards in the Men's gym either Tuesday or Wednesday.

ATTENTION, AD STAFF: Forgot to tell you! We are invited to the annual Spartan Daily dinner at the Italian hotel on Tuesday evening, December 18, at 6. Sign-up on the sheet on the door of the Pub office.—Gloria.
